Crafted from premium aluminium

A minimalistic, modern design crafted out of a refined, premium silver anodised aluminium alloy that stylishly compliments computers and products such as Macs, iMacs, and MacBooks. Silver anodising is an electrochemical process that converts a metal surface into a decorative, durable, corrosion-resistant, anodic oxide finish. Anodised aluminium is considered environmentally safe, producing few, if any, harmful effects on land, air, or water.

Tactile anti-slip rubber pads

The Stand features several built-in silicone rubber pads placed tactically on the base and top surface to keep your Laptop securely in place and prevent it from falling. Silicone rubber is a great means of providing a non-slip quality to a surface; their anti-slip, grip-like qualities ensuring that your stand will not only stay fixed, but will also leave no residue when removed.

An elevated, open design

Laptops and other electrical products contain microprocessors and power handling semiconductors that require a heat sink to reduce their temperature through increased thermal mass and heat dissipation. The aluminium alloy used to construct the Supreme stand provides the perfect thermal conductor, and the elevated, open design improves airflow around your Laptop whilst working; providing better cooling, heat dissipation and a quieter performance.
